CARLISLE, SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1819. Sevenal of the daily papers have disculated

we hast week fell into an error as to the mature of Mr. Robert Anderson's poone, about to be cemaitted to the press. The contents of the two furisoning volumes (see advertisement) will be entirely original, and of a noter intressing asture to the general reader than the Combeshand Ballads, the merits of which can be appreciated by those only who are thoroughly asquainted, with the namers and dislet of the Cumber-land pensantry. The lowers of the ballad, however, will not be neglected in the new publicat in, as it will contain several original ones, not all inferior to those which laved al-ready received the stampof public approlaction. The Subscribers to the intended Canal ready received the stampof public approbation.

The Scheerbers to the intended Caral will disc expedient at the Book 1 an, on Thurshay, on which day the General Meeting tokes place, for the purpose of putting the Act in execution—File Adult.

The tame nature: in which the Judges, for a few years past, have been received on their entry into this City during the Circuit, has engaged the attention of a Correspondent, whose letter appears in this Sairy's paper. We agree with him most conically, that the present plan is as dishorourable to ourselves, as it is disrespectful to the representatives of his Majesty; and we doubt not but the present High Sheriff will give the subject due consideration.
