OBITUARY

Mrs. Amy Jolliffe

As briefly reported in our last issue, the death occurred in the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital of Amy Leaura Emily Jolliffe, wife of James Jolliffe, at the age of 66.

She had only been ill for a short period.

The late Mrs. Jolliffe, who was born at "Cran Carwell," Quambone, was the fourth daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Gardner.

She married James Jolliffe at St. Paul's, Quambone, by Rev. John Parr and came to live at "Norick," Cowra. She lived in the Cowra, Goolagong and Canowindra districts ever since. Mrs. Jolliffe is survived by her husband and five children, Stella (South Africa), Merle, Isabel and Brian (Canowindra) and Wilfred (Sydney).

One brother, Attwood Charles Gardner (Roseberry) and eight sisters, Frances Elizabeth (Mrs. Wise, Queensland), Bertha Ada (Mrs. J. Bowman, Coonamble), Emma Mary (Mrs. E. A. Boatwain, Canowindra), Clara May (Mrs. J. Dwyer, Roseberry), Vida Robina (Mrs. L. Finucane, Coonamble), Georgina Jane (Mrs. W. Ingram, Coonamble), Norah Olive Lavina (Mrs. R. T. Una Geraldine (Mrs. T. Roberts, Roseberry).

The late Mrs. Jolliffe was laid to rest in the Church of England portion of the Canowindra cemetery, following a service in All Saints' Church of England.

Rev. H. S. Taylor officiated at the service in the church and at the graveside.

The arrangements for the funeral were in the hands of Mr. Roy Ayrton, of Canowindra.
